A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. - W. T. Brooks.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boesche's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house - for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists. - W. T. Brooks.

PERILS OF THE SEA.

A Life Saving Station Destroyed With Loss of Life.

A Tidal Wave Washed Across the Slip of Land Separating the Ocean and Sound and Carried Away the Building.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 17.-Further advice from the Carolina coast say that the New Inlet life saving station was destroyed by Sunday's hurricane and that several of the crew stationed there were lost. It is said a tidal wave washed across the strip of land separating the ocean from the sound and carried the station building away. The news was brought to Elizabeth City Wednesday by seamen.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 17.-Capt. Jack Benston, of the Norfolk tug Crit, arriving here Wednesday from Pamlico sound, reports the rescue by his tug of Capt. Hutchins and Mrs. Hutchins from the houseboat Drift Lodge on Saddle Harbor shoals in the sound Sunday. Capt. and Mrs. Hutchins were landed at the Portsmouth, N. C. life saving station, where they are being cared for. The houseboat is a total wreck, going to pieces shortly after its occupants were taken off its partly submerged roof. Capt. Hutchins is a Washington newspaper man.

Suffered From Exposure.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.-After having been lashed to a mast for more than 24 hours and with hope of being rescued almost abandoned, Capt. Fish and crew of seven men of the brig C. C. Sweeney, were taken from their perilous position Tuesday afternoon by the steamer Hawaiian, from Honolulu for this port. The men suffered greatly from exposure to the weather but are apparently no worse for their experience.

The brig left Charleston early last week for Philadelphia with cargo of lumber and encountered the southern hurricane Sunday off the Virginia coast. The brig withstood the terrific wind and sea for a short time only, and then became waterlogged. The deck load and houses were swept away, and the vessel finally broke in two. The crew then climbed the main mast and lashed themselves in the mainmast to keep from being washed away. They remained in this position until Monday afternoon by which time the sea had moderated enough to permit them to return to the deck of the half sunken hulk. No vessel was sighted until Tuesday morning, when the Hawaiian responded to their distress signals and rescued all hands.

A SCHOONER SUNK.

Was Run Down By a Tug-All But One of the Crew Picked Up.

Portland, Me., Nov. 17.-The Boston fishing schooner Vidia M. Brigham was run down and sunk by the tug Walter A. Luckenbach off the Portland lightship at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night. Of the crew of 14 men on board the vessel all but one, John Daly, of Boston, who was at the wheel, were saved and were brought to this city Thursday morning. The crew were unable to save any of their effects but left their vessel so hastily that nearly all came up to the city clad only in their underwear.

The Brigham left Gloucester Wednesday morning for South bay for bait and was two miles off the Portland lightship when she met the tug, bound for Providence, coming out of the harbor. The tug came upon the schooner quite rapidly. The bow of the tug, however, struck the schooner aft of the main mast and cut her stern nearly off. The tug stood by the schooner, which began to settle immediately, and picked up all of the crew except Daly.

CARLOAD OF ITALIAN MINERS.

It Was Fired Into From Ambush at Zeigler, Ill.

Duquoin, Ill., Nov. 17.-While the Illinois Central was transporting a car of Italian miners into Zeigler, Joseph Leiter's mining town, Wednesday, the car was fired into from ambush and one man was instantly killed. It was a Baltimore & Ohio car from the east and bears marks of a number of bullets. About 25 shots were fired. This was the third car of men taken into Zeigler during the last five days and was the first disturbance that has arisen over the strike for about two months.

George Gould Accidentally Shot.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 17.-While Geo. Gould was shooting birds near High Point, this state, Wednesday, he accidentally shot Edward Burns, an attendant. Several shot entered Burns' eye. A specialist of Greensboro says there is small chance of saving the eye. Mr. Gould at once sent the man to New York, where eminent oculists will be told to spare nothing that science and skill can effect to save Burns' sight.

Imperial Troops Repulsed.

Shanghai, Nov. 17.-The rebels have repulsed the imperial troops at Liuchow, in the province of Kwang Si, Southern China. They have captured Yuen Hsien, Tien Ho Sien, Locheng Shien, Hsui Yen Hsien and Lien Chen, five of the principal towns.

Gen. A. P. Hill's Daughter Weds.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 17.-Gen. J. MacGill, of Pulaski, Va., and Miss Lucy Lee Hill, youngest daughter of the confederate Lieutenant General A. P. Hill, were married at St. Paul's church in this city Wednesday.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.

Mrs. G. W. Fooks, of Salisbury, Md., wife of G. W. Fooks, Sheriff of Wicomico County, says: "I suffered with kidney complaint for eight years. It came on me gradually. I felt tired and weak, was short of breath and was troubled with bloating after eating, and my limbs were badly swollen. One doctor told me it would finally turn to Bright's disease. I was laid up at one time for three weeks. I had not taken Doan's Kidney Pills more than three days when the distressing aching across my back disappeared, and I was soon entirely cured."

THOUGHT HE HAD NO MONEY

But Had Five Dollars in His Pocket After Going Broke Playing Poker.

"I was brought up to use a good line of talk," says a young man who lives out near the Catholic university, relates a New York exchange. "I've been married now six months, and the only time my wife has ever heard a curse word from my lips was last Sunday morning. I went to a poker party over by the navy yard Saturday night. My wife knew I was going, and just to show her what a harmless little game it was going to be, I gave her most of my money before I left home. It was a very mild game we played, but the grain of the table was against me and by midnight I was broke. I didn't want to make a touch right there, so, as I was young and strong, I concluded I'd stroll downtown and borrow car fare from a newspaper man I knew. It was a nice night for a walk. Well, I frisked into the newspaperman's office and found that he'd gone to Baltimore. I've lived in Washington all my life, but I am not known at any hotel. There was no place where I'd be allowed to stay without baggage except on the C. O. D. basis, so off I set for home, alone in the starry night, with a brand new pair of patent leathers on. I romped under the wire two lengths ahead of the milkman, and went to bed. Along about nine o'clock my wife came in and woke me.

"What's the matter?" I said. "Are they ready to amputate my feet?"

"I just wanted some money for the Sunday papers," said she, picking up my vest.

"You'll have to pawn something," I said. "I'm broke."

"She was poking in my watch pocket. 'Don't take my watch,' I said."

"I don't want it," she answered. "I want that five-dollar bill I put here before you went away."

"It was there, too. I bet you any man would have said exactly what I said."

TILL NOON

The Simple Dish That Keeps One Vigorous and Well Fed.

When the Doctor takes his own medicine, and the grocer eats the food he recommends, some confidence comes to the observer.

A Grocer of Ossian, Ind., had a practical experience with food worth anyone's attention.

He says: "Six years ago I became so weak from stomach and bowel trouble that I was finally compelled to give up all work in my store, and, in fact, all sorts of work, for about four years. The last year I was confined to the bed nearly all of the time, and much of the time unable to retain food or any sort on my stomach. My bowels were badly constipated continually, and I lost in weight from 165 pounds down to 88 pounds."

"When at the bottom of the ladder I changed treatment entirely, and started in on Grape-Nuts and cream for nourishment. I used absolutely nothing but this for about three months. I slowly improved until I got out of bed and began to move about."

"I have been improving regularly, and now in the past two years have been working about fifteen hours a day in the store, and never felt better in my life."

"During these two years I have never missed a breakfast of Grape-Nuts and cream, and often have it two meals a day, but the entire breakfast is always made of Grape-Nuts and cream alone."

"Since commencing the use of Grape-Nuts I have never used anything to stimulate the action of the bowels, a thing I had to do for years, but this food keeps me regular and in fine shape, and I am growing stronger and heavier every day."

"My customers, naturally, have been interested, and I am compelled to answer a great many questions about Grape-Nuts."

"Some people would think that a simple dish of Grape-Nuts and cream would not carry one through to the noonday meal, but it will, and in the most vigorous fashion."
